Mr. Reuben Burris died at his residence in Savannah, Ga., on the 17th inst. at the age of 78 years. He was one of our most substantial and upright citizens, who always commanded the confidence and respect of his acquaintances. He was a successful planter and a man of fine business capacity for the occupation in which he was engaged. He was for many years a member of the Mountain Creek Baptist Church and Superintendent of the Sabbath School there. The remains of the deceased were interred in the Mountain Creek Cemetery on Friday morning, after Revs. Baxter Hays and M. McFee, in the presence of a large congregation of the relatives, friends and acquaintances of the deceased. Mr. Burris was a valuable citizen, whose death will be a loss to the community in which he lived.

Died, at the residence of Dr. W. J. Milford, in this County, on the 16th inst., Miss Harriet L. Swilling, in the thirty-sixth year of her age. In her early youth, when about thirteen years of age, she connected herself with the First Creek Baptist Church, and continued a faithful, devoted and exemplary member until her death. She was an earnest and efficient worker in the Sabbath School, the Ladies' Mission Society and the Church. The large class which she taught in the Sabbath School will miss her, her co-laborers in the Ladies' Mission work will miss her. Naturally endowed with a gentle and sweet disposition, she endeavored herself to aid who knew her. Her life was one of faith and works, and her death, preceded by protracted suffering, was one of peace, hope and triumph. She was buried in the appropriate funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. S. Murray, in the First Creek cemetery, near the spot where she had spent so many hours of her life in the work which her Saviour gave her to perform for him.

An Arkansas Traveler. Last Spring one of the first emigrants from this County was an old colored man named Adam Guyton, from the Brushy Creek Township of the County, who is about five years past his prime. He came back thoroughly disgusted with Arkansas. He went out in the party with Joe Lee, Moss Lee, John Thomas and others, and settled about one hundred miles from Little Rock. All of the party settled as farm laborers except John Thomas, who organized the party, and he says taught school until the sickly season, and then left them. The country is a low swamp, in which the health is said to be heavy until Summer, when chills and fevers rage with destroying violence. The water, he says, is foul and tastes bad. They are paid twenty-five cents per day for wages when they do day work, but are required to board themselves, and buy from the man they work for. The most of them, however, are paid a part of the crop. He says they are charged 18 cents a pound for bacon, when the stores sell it for 11 cents; $1.25 for meat, which sells at 75 cents, and other articles in proportion. He says hands are called to work by a bell, and that they are repaid by an overseer on horseback all day long. He states that here he does not know what work is, and says he has come back to stay in this country. He says of the party of thirty, most of the women who went out with him, about half are dead, and that nearly all of the children in the party have died. He advises all who think of going to Arkansas to live to abandon it at once. He gives terrible accounts of the want, privation and starvation which the poor, colored negroes go out there. All who contemplate going should see and talk with him. He is now living in Brushy Creek Township in this County.
